RECOMMENDATION LETTER

As a Head of Computer Department at Parul Polytechnic Institute, Limda.
I am pleased to write this recommendation letter for my student Student Name of 2011-2014 Batch under Gujarat Technological University, Gujarat, recommending his to your university.

He is found to have good knowledge in his field of studies and is quite diligent And self-motivated person who is well aware of his targets and priorities. He has keen interest in the academics works which reflects from his way of working. He was found to be attentive in class lectures. He was also contributing in laboratory works which shows his analytical skills and ability to think divergently. He was found to have basic knowledge in the subjects. He was quite confident and logical in the practical subjects he had undergone.

NIKUNJ PATEL was also involved in extra-curriculum & co-curricular Activities, at Institute, understanding their importance in shaping his personality and outlook.
Apart from his academic career, he was also involved in cultural activities and also participated in many inter-college competitions like attending conferences, technical workshop, student technical activity of department itself and such other events. He is candid in expressing his opinion and maintains dignity while interacting with his classmates, teachers and any other person.

He also has good sense of humour, which always is an asset of personality in any person. I feel proud to say that Nikunj Patel was our student. I recommend his as he is very good student who is keen to pursue his further studies in your esteem university. Considering his abilities and assets, I am sure that he will also make us proud.

I am confident that he will continuously strive to maintain and improve upon his impression and his grades at your University.
