About Australia

Australia is a world apart - both literally and figuratively speaking. It's a land beyond the ocean that is different from what other people might even imagine in ways they might even not think about. Australia might be the Western world's bastion in the Southern Hemisphere, with English as its official language, but its unique position on the map make it very different in aspects that go beyond politics and economy. It is the largest country in Oceania & the world's sixth-largest country by total area & lowest population density as per square kilometer. Australian capital is Canberra, and its largest city is Sydney. The country's other major metropolitan areas are Melbourne, Brisbane, Perth and Adelaide. Australia is third most popular country for International education. Australia has pleasant weather that ranges from temperate to tropic. Australians enjoy a very good standard of living further enhanced by a relaxed lifestyle giving equal importance to work and play. There is no dearth of educational and the employment opportunities to the right candidate and this ensures that the standard is maintained.
